

Backside of Card:

Supple Branch Carvings by Seth

Seth's pieces are all created through sustainable practices, using only reclaimed wood and hand powered tools. He finds beauty in that which would otherwise be overlooked or discarded.

Additional Information:

- All wood is finished with mineral oil
- Each item also has carved in it Seth's signature symbol

2010 – 2011 Inventory List

	1. Fish Bowl - Driftwood Japanese Kanji translation: Driftwood Fish Swimming Driftwood collected on Northern California Coast near Gualala Created Summer 2011
	2. "Boat" – Driftwood Driftwood collected on Northern California Coast near Gualala Created Summer 2011
	3. Salad Servers - Driftwood Driftwood collected on Northern California Coast near Gualala Created Summer 2011
	4. Slotted Spoon - Driftwood Driftwood collected on Northern California Coast near Gualala Created Summer 2011
	5. Curly Fork – Madrone Madrone wood repurposed from firewood Created Spring 2011
	6. "Boat" – Redwood Redwood collected from fallen branches in Felton, CA Created Spring 2011

7. "Boat" – Redwood

Redwood collected from fallen branches in Felton, CA
Created Spring 2011

8., 9., & 10. Three Spoons – Redwood

Each made from different "layer" of redwood, thus the 3 colors
Redwood collected from fallen branches in Felton, CA
Created 2010 - 2011